

ARTIST STATEMENT

Melody Allen: "Between Two Pines"

I created "Between Two Pines" for the Photosynthesis I exhibition held in 2019. The image was inspired by this quote by John Muir.

"Between every two pine trees is a door leading to a new way of life."

My interpretation of that thought is that immersion in nature has healing powers, and that a person can be transformed by closely observing and connecting to nature's wonderments.